

Tiger-Themed Books

- The Tiger Who Came to Tea – Judith Kerr
- Augustus and His Smile – Catherine Rayner
- There's a Tiger in the Garden – Lizzy Stewart
- Mr Tiger Goes Wild – Peter Brown
- The Jungle Book – Rudyard Kipling (for older readers)

Crafts & Creative Activities

- Make a paper plate tiger mask – Use orange paint, black stripes, and string.
- Create a tiger puppet using a toilet roll tube, googly eyes and felt.
- Draw a jungle scene and hide a tiger somewhere in it, play 'find the tiger'.

Tiger-Themed Treats

- Bake tiger-striped biscuits using chocolate and vanilla dough. Even better if you have tiger or animal themed cookie cutters
- Decorate cupcakes with orange icing and chocolate stripes.

Learn About Tigers

- What do tigers eat?
- Where do they live in the wild?
- Why are they endangered and how can we help?

Try visiting kid-friendly sites like National Geographic Kids or WWF to find out more.

Write Your Own Tiger Tale

Start your own tiger story with this prompt:

“One morning, I woke up and there was a tiger sitting at the kitchen table...”

Write what happens next! Where does the tiger go? What do you do together?

Mini Tiger Quiz

1. What colour are most tigers?
2. Do tigers live in Africa or Asia?
3. What do tigers eat?
4. Can tigers swim?
5. How many tiger species are there in the wild today?